As stated above, technical and schedule problems make it unlikely this milestone will be met. The Committee also notes that this projected March 2001 date is just two months into the beginning of a new Administration and Congress. The Committee believes there must be sufficient time for the next Administration to formulate its own plans for the JSF in the context of its own overall defense program. In this regard, a March 2001 decision point involving a program of this importance is clearly unrealistic. Therefore, the Committee recommends the following actions: (1) The Committee bill includes total fiscal year 2001 funding for the Joint Strike Fighter of 706, 606, 000, a net decrease of 150, 000, 000 from the budget request. Within this total the Com-mittee has provided 411, 101, 000 for concept demonstration, an in-crease of 150, 000, 000 over the budget request; and 295,...
