The recently organized Department of Protective and Detective Police of New York and Brooklyn, is considered eminently effective and successful. The heads of the Department appointed by the State Legislature, comprise a Board of Commissioners, J. A. Kennedy, General Superintendent, and George W. Embree, Chief Clerk, etc. By the last quarterly report, it appears that the Police force of the City of New York consists of twenty-six Captains, one hundred and five Sergeants, forty-two Roundsmen, sixty Detailments, one thousand two hundred and fifty Patrolmen, and fifty-six Doormen. The Police Telegraph has become an important auxiliary in the prevention and detection of crime, and also is a great convenience to the public. By this medium, several hundred lost children have been restored to their homes, and many thousand instances of criminals brought to justice. By the statistics submitted to the...
