Neuware - The European Conference on Numerical Mathematics and Advanced Applications (ENUMATH) was held from June 29 July 3, 2010, in Uppsala, Sweden. This was the eighth conference in a series of biannual meetings starting in Paris (1995). S-sequent conferences were organized in Heidelberg (1997), Jyvas kyla (1999), Ischia (2001), Prague (2003), Santiago de Compostela (2005), and Graz (2007). This volume contains a selection of papers by the invited speakers and from the minisymposia and the contributed sessions. The purpose of the conference was to create a forum for discussion and d- semination of recent results in numerical mathematics and new applications of computational methods.
