OCLC Number: (OCoLC)17450968 Subject: Engineering -- Research -- United States. Excerpt: . . . However, despite the economic importance of public works, and associations, and corporations. the magnitude of annual investment in construction, operations, and maintenance, R and D expenditures on construction technologies and materials are relatively small. Total Federal R and D for infrastructure was 103 million in FY85, or roughly 0.3 percent of total new infrastructure construction (see table 1-1). Of this amount, OTA estimates that Federal agencies spent around 36 million on R and D for infrastructure materials; 14 million on incremental and advanced improvements in construction technologies and methods; and the remainder to improve design, evaluations, needs analyses, management systems, feasibility studies, information dissemination, etc. The types of, and levels of funding for, Federally-sponsored R and D programs related to public works vary widely (see tables 1-2 and 1-3). Domestic public works projects tend to borrow technologies and materials developed for other applications (e. g. , fiber-reinforced concrete). Federal research agendas reflect this in their emphases...
