Andrusian Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 163 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A fantastic fantasy adventure with a science fiction flare. LIBERATION Book One of The Andrusian Chronicles Amora Madre is content in the Smokey Mountains pursuing her teaching of love, things of the spirit, and metaphysics. Her childhood invisible playmates, Casey and Nia, are always by her side. But when soul mate Gabriel Ephraim enters her life, she is drawn into the heart of a horrific encounter with the spirit world in the skies over Washington D.C. Catapulted into service for the Intergalactic Supernatural Intelligence Agency, ISIA, the kindred lovers soon discover the existence of an invisible wickedness over the city, its galactic origins, and its evil designs for national and world events. As part of a galactic strike force assembled to dismantle the malevolent force s brutal matrix, Amora and Gabriel, seasoned and accomplished, embark on a dangerous adventure filled with Onaweyans, historical figures, and a confrontation with the dark supernatural syndicate over the fate of the United States and the earth. With journeys into dimensional worlds, interactions with fantastic creatures, and revelation of the current struggle between the spiritual forces of good and evil, LIBERATION draws the reader into a world where the spiritual dimensions and reality converge. LIBERATION is an extraordinary spiritual adventure story and healing fable for our times. --Cecilia Sepp, Consultant and Writer, and Immediate Past President, American Independent Writers I was electrified and uplifted by the storyline of LIBERATION, spellbound by its creativity. It makes you want to keep reading until the book ends. --Judy A. Worman, Former Dartmouth College Senior Lecturer LIBERATION takes readers on a thought provoking journey into the paranormal, making one want to believe there are greater forces...
