College professor, Bianca Jefferson has three things on her mind when she travels to Houston, Texas to visit her longtime friend. Neither of those includes cohabitating with Jeremiah Davis, the one she left behind a decade ago. How can she remain in his presence without revealing the truth that drove her away from him in the first place? Feeling deceived even after ten years, Jeremiah, international business executive turned truck driver is furious at being stuck in his cousin s home with Bianca. How dare she show up now after the way she disappeared ten years ago? How can the two of them overcome the ghosts of their past and open their hearts to everlasting love?.
