If a man wished to make the most of his powers, the true secret would be found in employing them for a good object, and suffering them to be wholly under the direction of benevolence. John Howard s purpose to do good has made a more permanent impression on the interests of the world than the talents of Alexander or Caesar. I f FuU of the Holy Ghost. Was entirely under the influence of the Holy Spirit. This is the second qualification here mentioned of a good minister. He was not merely exemplary for mildness and kindness of temper, but he was eminently a man of God. He was filled with the influences of the sacred Spirit, producing zeal, love, peace, joy, etc. See Gal. v. 22,23. Compare Notes on Actsii.4. Andoffaith. Confidence in the truth and promises ofGod. This is the third qualification mentioned; and this was another cause of his success. He confided in God. He depended, not on his own strength, but on the strength of the arm of God. With these qualifications he engaged in his work, and he was successful. These qualifications should be sought by the ministry of the Gospel. Others should not indeed be neglected, but a man s ministry will usually be successful only as he seeks to possess those endowments which distinguished Barnabas--a kind, tender, benevolent heart; devoted piety; the fullness of the Spirit s influence; and strong, unwavering confidence...
